SHOWCASE YOUR BRAND

We're excited to announce a unique opportunity to sponsor the upcoming exclusive networking event organised by the Cannabis Industry Council (CIC) and the Medical Cannabis Clinicians Society (MCCS) on 2 November at Gowling WLG, London.

Taking place to mark Medical Cannabis Awareness Week 2023, as a sponsor, you will have the chance to meet and interact with a diverse, influential audience.

Network

An excellent event for networking with a diverse audience of industry professionals, policymakers, and regulators across the sector

Showcase

Display your services in our dedicated exhibition space and feature your logo on all marketing materials, providing direct exposure to all attendees

Connect

Engage directly with key players in the medical cannabis industry, including leading clinicians, regulatory bodies, and members of the MCCS and CIC

About the Event

Thursday 2 November 2023

Gowling WLG, 4 More London Pl, London SE1 2AU
5pm - 9pm, with drinks & canapés

We are currently in the process of confirming a panel of speakers, with a keen emphasis on creating dynamic and thought-provoking conversations for our guests.

Over the next few weeks, we will continue our efforts in securing a range of additional high-profile speakers, offering a broad spectrum of expertise and viewpoints. The event will be a unique opportunity, open exclusively to leading stakeholders, including business leaders, MPs, policymakers and investors.

Confirmed speaker: Dr. Dedi Meri

Dr. Dedi Meiri directs the Laboratory of Cancer Biology and Cannabinoid Research, investigating cannabinoids' therapeutic potential on diseases like cancer and epilepsy and spearheads the Database Project, profiling diverse cannabis strains and their medical relevance.

Meet the event hosts

This event is jointly hosted by the MCCA and the CIC. It will follow the Society's AGM and the Council's all-member meeting each taking place earlier the same day.

Medical Cannabis Clinicians Society

The Medical Cannabis Clinicians Society (MCCA), chaired by Dr. Leon Barron, with Executive Director Hannah Deacon and President Prof Mike Barnes at the helm, is a not-for-profit community committed to the advancement of safe, legal, and effective medical cannabis treatments.

The Society advocates for patient access to medical cannabis through the NHS for those living with chronic conditions.

The Society serves the medical and scientific community by providing high quality education, training, and support, drawing upon the expertise of leading global prescribers.

Cannabis Industry Council

The Cannabis Industry Council (CIC), under the leadership of CEO Mike Morgan-Giles and co-chaired by Dr. Callie Seaman and Jamie Bartley, is a membership organisation that represents the comprehensive spectrum of the UK cannabis industry.

Welcoming members from organisations and businesses operating within the United Kingdom, the Channel Islands, and the Isle of Man, the CIC is dedicated to propelling the industry's success.

Its core mission is to unify the industry, enabling it to speak with one voice - by and for the sector.
